

Verb Tenses

Present Continuous with Future Meaning

A- Put the following into the immediate future using the present continuous.

1. We'll finish our breakfast in a few minutes.

2. I shall speak to you everyday next week.

3. I'll carry an umbrella; it's raining cats and dogs.

4. Mr. Jones will buy a magazine this time.

5. We'll meet our friends at the airport.

6. They'll visit America this summer.

7. I'll have a bath before dinner.

8. My brother will give me some good advice.

9. We'll land in half an hour.

10. The "Queen Mary" will sail next Friday.

11. He will cut the grass this weekend.

12. Will she get back before dusk?

13. Somebody told me that the weather will get better soon.

14. When will they stop that noise?

15. We will visit him tomorrow.

16. The guests won't come so soon.
