We can talk about past habits, actions or states with "used to".

- I used to go fishing with my dad every summer when I was young.
- I used to eat a lot of sweets in the past but I'm on a diet now.
- She used to be a doctor before she got married and move to Australia.

We can also talk about past habits and actions with "would" too. We cannot use "would" to talk about past states.

- I used to go/would go fishing with my dad every summer when I was young.
- I used to eat/would eat a lot of sweets in the past but I'm on a diet now.
- BUT: She ~~would~~ be a doctor before she got married and move to Australia.

Choose the correct answer:

1. We _____ go for a walk every morning when we were little.

A. used to B. would C. both A and B

2. Dad _____ a good student.

A. used to be B. used to was C. would be

3. I _____ ice cream when I was a baby.

A. didn't like B. didn't use to like C. both A and B

4. My sister and I _____ to the cinema on Saturdays and have an Ice- cream afterwards.

A. used to go B. would always go C. did go

5. Before I moved to Paris, I _____ in Scotland.

A. used to live B. would live C. both A and B